"ALT FOR NORGE"

"Alt for Norge" (Everything for Norway) is a Norwegian reality series produced by Monster Entertainment for TVNorge. In the series, twelve Norwegian-Americans compete to see who is the "most Norwegian" with help from different Norwegian themed challenges. The series was named the best competitive reality show by Gullruten (Norwegian TV awards) in 2011, the best reality show by Gullruten in 2012, and was also nominated for best new program series in 2011 and awarded best clip/editing in 2012.

For five years in a row TVNorge has gone on a trip with twelve charming and outspoken Norwegian-Americans in search of their Norwegian family. This year the show has included, among others, an American football athlete, a pastor, a model and a marine biologist who writes novels about a sexy troll. To meet in Norway has brought out heavy emotions for all of the participants.

"Alt for Norge is founded on a real love for Norway, and participants have a genuine motivation to find out more about their Norwegian roots. This makes the program more genuine and warm-hearted than many others. Additionally the Americans are not arrogant and will put themselves out there and those that do are easy to like," says the show's host, Henriette Bruusgaard. The show is filmed throughout Norway, and participants are competing to find out who is the most "Norwegian". They must go through a series of Norwegian challenges, and in the process bust myths about both Norwegians and Americans. The one who stands until the end wins a meeting with their Norwegian relatives.

The series is rated as one of TVNorge's largest achievements, and the concept has been sold to several countries. The new season was filmed from April to June and will be aired in the fall 2014.

VIKING GAMES

During the Viking Age, daily life involved a lot of heavy labor, particularly in agriculture. But the Vikings' lives were not without fun. In a recent study, Leszek Gardela, an archaeologist at the University of Rzeszów, matches descriptions from saga literature with excavated artifacts to reveal how Vikings entertained themselves during leisure time. They loved board games, gambling, sports challenges, dancing, music and crafts. Leisure activities were often associated with festivals, weddings, religious events, market days and other social gatherings, though not exclusively.

While being an amusing way to pass the time, many Viking sports served a secondary purpose of preparing men physically for battle, usually involving displays of strength, agility, masculinity and violence. An ideal warrior needed to be adept of body and mind, and the games were part of their preparation.

Weightlifting challenges used boulders as weights to determine the brawniest competitor. Tug-of-war, or toga honk, was also popular. Wrestling (glíma) was widespread, and the object was to throw one's opponent off his feet onto his back using the strength of one's arms. The matches were violent and sometimes ended in broken limbs or worse. Warriors would also participate in weaponry games to hone their battle skills. Competitions in archery, sword fighting and spear- and stone-throwing offered prizes. Various other physical games were played including animal skin-throwing games (hornaskinnleikr or skinnleikr), full-contact ball games (knattleikr), turf games (torfleikr), and scraper games (sköfuleikr), similar to hockey. Though these offered a slightly less rugged type of sport, tripping and shoving were fair play and even these "more civilized" games sometimes turned violent and proved fatal.

Board games were played to develop intellect, strategy and problem-solving abilities, and being adept at these games was considered noble. Hnefatafl was a favorite war board game for two players, an ancestor of chess by about four centuries, having been well-known by 400 A.D. The two players do not start with an equal number of pieces, however. One side is surrounded by the other's army, and outnumbered, and the object is to protect one's king and strategize your way to victory, or at least safety, by thinking like your opponent.

More peaceful hobbies were also pursued, such as wood-carving, whittling, and embroidery. Also, music and storytelling were other favored pastimes and epic historical tales survived by word of mouth. Being an engaging storyteller was a prized skill, and some people did it professionally.

While Vikings lived hard lives with little time for leisure activities, they were certainly adept at amusing themselves when the opportunity arose.

THE VIKING GAME "HNEFATAFL" PRONOUNCED NEF-AH-TAH-FEL, WAS THE MOST POPULAR BOARD GAME OF ITS TIME.

MONTHLY MEETINGS

July 10, 2014

The July meeting of the Sons of Norway, Valheim Lodge 1-364, was held on Thursday, July 10, 2014, in the American Legion meeting room; President Karen Fried presiding.

President Karen called the meeting to order at 7 p.m. The anthems were sung. President Karen welcomed our guest speakers, Howard and Linda Sherpe.

There was no Secretary's report.

Loretta Knutson gave the Treasurer's report. As of June 30, the checkbook balance was $2938.00.

President Karen reported that our Lodge has received a Gold certificate award for our achievements in 2013. We received a Silver certificate for 2014. These awards were presented at the District 1 Convention in June.

President Karen thanked Darrell and Oranda Sinclair for representing the Lodge in the 4th of July parade in Eitzen, Minnesota.

Geneva Tweeten reported that she had been able to find only 2 copies of the book 'O Pioneers' by Willa Cather for the Book Club. Geneva will also have a film at the meeting. The Cather book was to be discussed at the June Book Club meeting. They had a road trip instead, so they will discuss it in July. A suggestion was made to check with the Spring Grove Library about the book. President Karen thanked Geneva for all her time and effort for the Book Club road trip. The Book Club members said they had all enjoyed the road trip.

President Karen thanked everyone that had helped with the coffee and luncheon for the Sons of Norway from Rochester on June 28. There were 30 people in their party.

President Karen announced that the Sons of Norway was responsible for delivering Meals on Wheels the week of August 4 - 8. Judy Melbostad and Janet Fossum said they would deliver on Monday. Darrell and Oranda Sinclair said they would deliver on Wednesday; Jackie Parker and Karen Fried said they needed to check their schedules.

We are invited to the Winona Sons of Norway picnic on August 26. Our Lodge will not meet on the second Thursday. We will meet at the Trinity Church parking lot and car pool to Winona. We will need to meet at 4:30 p.m. The picnic will be at the Lions Club park in Winona. President Karen suggested that we go earlier if there is another place we would like to visit before the picnic. Our trip to Winona will take the place of our regular meeting on the second Thursday of the month.

The next Executive Board meeting will be on July 30, 2014, at 11:00 a.m. at Ivy Grove.

Lee Grippen introduced our speakers, Howard and Linda Sherpe from Westby, Wisconsin. Mr. Sherpe has returned to his hometown, Westby, after 30 years in the newspaper business in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He continues to be a part-time journalist and newspaper publisher.

July 30, 2014

The Executive Board of the Sons of Norway, Valheim Lodge 1-364, met on Wednesday, July 30, 2014, at 4:15 p.m. in the Giants of the Earth Heritage Hall; President Karen Fried presiding.

The Treasurer reported a balance of $ 2500.00 in the checkbook.

Parade invitations from Steam Engine Days in Mabel, and Canton's Day Off were discussed. The Board decided to attend Mabel's Steam Engine Days but not Canton's Day Off. The boat needs repairs before we can take it farther than Mabel. Vice-President David Peterson said that more help is needed to get the boat ready for a parade.

Motion was made by Lee Grippen and seconded by Emma Landsom to take members in cars rather than the boat. Motion was passed by Sign of the Order. We will need to find cars to use.

The Houston County Fair will be held on August 14 - 16, 2014. Lee Grippen is being honored at the Fair as Senior Volunteer of the Year.

Giants of the Earth Heritage Center will be unveiling a statue of Sigmund Aarseth as well as other gala happenings on the weekend of October 18 and 19.

Lee Grippen read a letter from Jill Storlie, who is spending the summer in Norway.

Uffda Days is October 4, 2014. After discussion the Board agreed that we would hold a free will offering Bake Sale at the Giants of the Earth Heritage Center (Ballard House). The Bake Sale will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

We need to contact Trinity Lutheran Church to see if we may have our meeting of October 9, 2014, in their Fellowship room and kitchen. We are host to the Westby Sons of Norway Lodge. A question was raised about Jill Storlie being home in time to chair for the food part of the evening. Janet Fossum will talk with Trinity Church to find out if it is available for our October meeting. Members need to be at Trinity by 6:00 p.m. to help to get the set up done before the Westby Lodge arrives.

The dues for District 1 have been raised to $6.50 from $5.50 per member. The District meeting in 2016 will be held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Our annual Christmas Bake Sale is scheduled for December 13, 2014, at the American Legion meeting room.

Morris and Geneva Tweeten are celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary!

The next Board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 3, 2014, at 4:15 p.m. at Giants of the Earth Heritage Hall.

Leif Erikson Day October 9

Leif Erikson Day – Oct 9

An official U.S. holiday, Leif Erikson Day commemorates the achievements of famous Norse explorer, Leif Erikson. Credited with being the first European to reach the North American continent, Erikson arrived almost four centuries before Columbus. Why October 9? - The official date of Leif Erikson Day doesn't directly correlate to Erikson's arrival in North America. Instead—in a nod to the same explorative spirit that fueled Erikson's journey—the date marks the arrival of the very first immigrant ship from Norway, the Restauration, to New York in 1825. Exactly 100 years later, 1925, President Coolidge declared Erikson the first European to discover America during a commemorative address in Minnesota. In the years that followed several U.S. states adopted the date as a state holiday and in September of 1964 Congress approved a public resolution authorizing President Johnson to declare October 9 as Leif Erikson Day nationwide.

Judy Melbostad sold her house and has moved to the Spring Gove Manor. Best wishes to Judy in her new home!

Matlyst Monthly Vanilla Cheesecake with Lingonberries & Cardamom Whipped Cream

adapted from <http://alittlezaftig.com>

- 2 lbs cream cheese (room temp.)
- ½ cup unsalted butter (room temp.)
- 1 tbsp vanilla extract
- 1½ cup sugar
- ½ cup less 1 tbsp cornstarch
- 7 large eggs
- 2 cups heavy cream
- ¼ cup lemon juice

Berry Topping

- 1 cup fresh lingonberries
- ¼ cup sugar

Cardamom Cream

- 2 cups heavy cream
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 tbsp vanilla extract
- 1 tbsp freshly ground cardamom seeds

Move rack to upper ⅓ position and preheat oven to 350. Beat cream cheese and butter with electric mixer until smooth. Add sugar, vanilla and cornstarch and beat well. One at a time add the eggs, beating well between each addition. With the mixer set to low, gradually add the cream and lemon juice. Pour into a buttered 9x13 pan. Place pan in a bain marie (directions below) and bake for 30 minutes. After 30 minutes, increase oven temperature to 375 and rotate cheesecake 180 degrees in the oven. Bake for additional 15 minutes or until the top is a golden brown. Allow cheesecake to cool to room temperature. Carefully run a knife around the edge of the pan to release the cake and invert onto a serving tray. To prepare the topping, sprinkle lingonberries with sugar and stir until sugar dissolves. Allow to rest for 30 minutes. Whip cream, sugar, vanilla and cardamom seeds with electric mixer. Spoon berries and cardamom cream onto each piece of cake and serve.

To make a bain marie, fill a pan one size larger than your 9x13 cake pan with boiling water. Do not fill more than ⅓ of the pan. Slowly lower your cake pan into the pan of boiling water, covering the sides of the cheesecake pan half of the way. Add or remove water to reach correct level and place both pans in the oven.

Lee reminds us to save used postage stamps for Tubfrim. Bring them to any monthly meeting.
