17TH ANNUAL BARNELOPET

February 6, 2015 was a calm, mild (in the 20's) overcast day with perfect snow! Almost 40 participants took part in the Barneelopet. Jon and Mary Hart of Decorah once again sponsored the event which made it a free event for the participants.

Thank you to the Sons of Norway lodges from Lanesboro, Decorah and Spring Grove for making donations and a special thank you to Vesterheim Museum and Darlene Fossum-Martin and her family who do tons of work to make this event enjoyable for everyone!

MONTHLY MEETINGS

^^ Cheryl Jolstad and Phil Paulson

For our January program Phil Paulson, from Caledonia, shared his travelog on his Normandy Academic Scholarship that included the WWII Museum in New Orleans and then to Normandy, France where he participated in a special series of presentations on Normandy's involvement in the war. He was the recipient of the scholarship by friends of Karen and Cheryl Jostad of Caledonia whose father was a WWII POW. Phil is the son of Mike and Kay Paulson of Wilmington. We all enjoyed a wonderful soup lunch afterwards.

In February, lodge member Bill Fried ^^ told us the story of the paintings and the names on the walls at the Giants of the Earth Heritage Center.

We celebrated Valentines Day by wearing lots of red, heard a Valentine's story from Loretta (found on page 4) and looked at some very old Valentines that Lee Grippen had brought. Emma was in the Valentine's mood....she was giving out kisses!! (they may have been Hershey Kisses).

Norwegian Baked Cheesecake with Brunost-Pecan Caramel

Adapted from nordicnibbler.com

Crust:

- 225g (2 2/3 cup) graham crackers
- 50g (1/3 cup) unsalted butter

Filling:

- 300g (1 1/3 cup) skjørost cheese ( or cottage cheese)
- 450g (2 cups) Snøfrisk cheese (or cream cheese)
- 225g (1 1/8 cup) caster sugar
- 3 large eggs
- 1 tbsp lemon juice
- 1 tsp lemon zest
- 175g (3/4 cup) sour cream

Topping:

- 160g (3/4 cup) sugar
- 40ml (2 3/4 tbsp) water
- 180ml (3/4 cup) double cream (or heavy cream)
- 50g (1 3/4 oz) brunost, sliced
- pecans, roughly chopped

Preheat oven to 170°C (325°F). Crush crackers with a rolling pin or a food processor. Pour into a bowl and add melted butter. Mix well. Line the bottom of a 22-24 cm (9 inch) diameter springform cake tin with baking paper (not necessary if using a nonstick tin) and pour in crumb mixture. Press the crumbs down firmly to create a level base. Bake for ten minutes and let cool on a rack.

Put cheeses and sugar in a bowl and blend with an electric mixer until fluffy. Add one egg at a time to filling, mixing as you go. Add lemon juice, zest and sour cream and mix briefly. Use tin foil to wrap the bottom and sides of tin and place in a baking tray filled with 2-3 cm (3/4-1 inch of water). Pour the filling onto the top of the cake base. Place in 150°C (300°F) oven and bake for 70 minutes. Turn off the oven and open door slightly, allowing cake to sit in oven for another 30 minutes. Cake should have a slight jiggle at center but be set on sides. Chill in fridge.

Topping:

Heat sugar and water in a pan, over medium heat. Once sugar dissolves, stop stirring and continue heating until mixture turns an amber color. Take off heat so the sugar doesn't get too dark and add the cream and brunost. Stir well. Pour into a measuring cup and place in fridge to cool completely.

Cake is best served when chilled for 4-5 hours. Top with poured caramel and chopped pecans.

Ole & Lena celebrate Valentine's Day

Original story by Loretta Knutson, 2/13/2016

Ole and Lena's parents were from the "Old Country" and they grew up following most of the ways of their forefathers. For instance, in Norway, affection is not shown in public – ever!! Valentine's day never existed in Norway – the only time they used hearts as a decoration was on their Christmas Tree. They celebrated Christmas and Easter like all good old Norwegian Lutherans and that was it!

When Ole and Lena came to Spring Grove, Minnesota, they wanted to be with other Norwegian friends so they joined the local Sons of Norway, Valheim Lodge. Oh, how they loved to go to meetings since they always had a dance after the meeting – many times Bill Sherburne played his fiddle to the old waltzes, schottisches, and polkas. Oh, how their feet would fly!!

When their children started school they came home one day in February and said they were to bring valentines for all the classmates. Well, Ole thought this was a complete waste of his hard earned money, but he wanted the children to fit in so he consented to buying valentines for the classmates. On valentine's day the children were so happy when they came home from school with all of the valentines they had received from the classmates, and even a small box of candy from the teacher!! Ole wondered about these new fangled ideas!

Soon Lena became close friends with Tena and they were busy hatching plans for everything!! Tena was listening in on Clara Belle and Gudrun on the party line one day and a they were talking about the nice time they had last year at the Black Hammer Church's "Sweetheart Dinner". Tena excitedly called Lena and told her all about the good food prepared by Ross Otterness, special speakers, etc. out there on the Black Hammer, so they decided they were going to get Ole and Lars to take them to this "Sweetheart Dinner". Of course, Ole and Lars did not want to hear anything about a "Sweetheart Dinner".

Well, time was drawing near when tickets needed to be purchased, and Tena and Lena wondered how they would ever get Lars and Ole to go. They decided to tell them Black Hammer was going to have a Lutefisk dinner, complete with lefsa and all the trimmings. Of course Ole and Lars that this would be great! So the big night approached. Ole and Lena picked up Tena and Lars in their vehicle and proceeded to the Black Hammer. As they entered the church, Ole looked at Lars and said "Sure does not smell like a Lutefisk dinner"! About then the girls know their game was over and they had to confess they had bought tickets to the "Sweetheart Dinner" and this is how they tricked the men into going along. Well, Ole and Lars were hungry so they decided to stay anyway. Oh, the food was so good, as you know that Ross Otterness is an excellent cook. And the desserts were to die for! Of course, all Ole and Lars talked about during the dinner was slopping hogs and the price of corn!! Pretty hard to change an old Norwegian who wasn't going to show any emotion at a "Sweetheart Dinner".

Things are slowly changing at the homes of Ole and Lars though. This year they decided to purchase Valentine cards for their wives – but "Oh, No, none of that candy or flowers!!"

ATTRACTIONS IN NORWAY

Tourists to Norway are often familiar with the county's top attractions, visiting natural sites like Preikestolen as well as cultural gems like Oslo Opera House and Bergen's famous wharf. But which attractions and destinations are among Norwegians' favorite ways to spend their summers? Survey results from the Norwegian Hospitality Association highlight the most popular sites. Here are five that made the list:

The National Gallery - nasjonalmuseet.no/en/ Founded in 1837, the Nasjonalgalleriet in Oslo houses the country's largest public collection of paintings, drawings and sculptures, including works by Munch, Manet and Cézanne. According to the survey, more than four out of every ten Norwegians have visited the gallery.

Kristiansand Zoo and Amusement Park - dyreparken.no/

A popular destination, nearly 75% of all Norwegians surveyed have visited this zoo and amusement park. In addition to over 800 animals, the zoo also includes theme parks inspired by cultural works like Cardamom Town, modeled after the famous children's book by Thorbjørn Egner, and Captain Sabertooth World, which was created after characters in a theater production.

Nidaros Cathedral - nidarosdomen.no/en/ Visited by nearly 400,000 tourists annually, Nidaros Cathedral is Norway's national sanctuary and stands over the grave of the country's patron saint, St. Olav. Restored many times since initial construction began in 1070, the cathedral has survived several fires and lightning strikes over its long history.

Fredriksten Fortress - visitoslofjord.no/en/halden/Fredriksten-fortress/ Constructed in Halden to protect Norway against incursions by the Swedish in the latter half of the 17th century, Fredriksten Fortress is now a national monument. Today, a variety of cultural activities and offerings attract visitors to the historic site, such as restaurants, guided tours, museums and nature trails.

The Lofoten Islands - lofoten.info/en/ Distinctively beautiful, the Lofoten Islands are often described as one of the most picturesque places in Norway. Visitors flock to the area to take in the dramatic coastline and sandy white beaches while enjoying hiking, biking, kayaking, whale watching and more.

Book Forening

(Book Club)

Book Club will meet March 15 at Spring Grove Communications, room 103 at 2:00 to discuss the February book "Norwegian by Night" by Derek Miller. The book follows a cantankerous Jewish widower transplanted to Norway who becomes party to a hate crime. The book is a combination of: part memory novel, part police procedural, part sociopolitical tract and part existential meditation.

The April book "Nothing to Do but Stay, My Pioneer Mother" by Carrie Young is the true story of Carrine Gafkjen who in the early 1900's, by herself, homesteaded in North Dakota.

We welcome all to join. Contact Geneva Tweeten if you would like more information.
